

Work Comp ICD-10-CM Readiness

State	Status	State	Status
Alabama	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims	Nebraska	Hospital inpatient claims only
Alaska	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims	Nevada	Will accept ICD on all claims
Arizona	The Industrial Commission of Arizona (ICA) Fee Schedule does not address the use of ICD-9 or ICD-10. However, recommends aligning with CMS mandate.	New Hampshire	Pending confirmation
Arkansas	State does not use ICD coding; do not plan on adopting ICD coding in future rule making process. However, recommends aligning with CMS mandate.	New Jersey	Pending confirmation
California	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims	New Mexico	Will accept ICD on all claims
Colorado	Hospital inpatient claims only	New York	Will accept ICD on all claims
Connecticut	Recommends aligning with CMS mandate	North Carolina	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims
Delaware	No official decision	North Dakota	Pending confirmation
Florida	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims	Ohio	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims
Georgia	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims	Oklahoma	Determined by payer
Hawaii	State does not use ICD coding; does not plan on adopting ICD coding in their future rule making process.	Oregon	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims
Idaho	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims	Pennsylvania	Pending confirmation
Illinois	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims	Rhode Island	Highly encourages providers to follow the CMS Mandate
Indiana	Hospital inpatient claims only	South Carolina	Hospital inpatient claims only
Iowa	No regulations	South Dakota	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims
Louisiana	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims	Tennessee	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims
Maine	Hospital inpatient claims only	Texas	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims
Maryland	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims	Utah	Recommends providers and payers adopt ICD-10 to provide continuity. However, will not mandate the adoption of ICD-10.
Massachusetts	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims	Vermont	The state is not adopting ICD -10; highly encourages providers to follow the CMS Mandate.
Michigan	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims	Virginia	Determined by payer
Minnesota	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims	Washington	Will accept ICD-10 on all claims
Mississippi	State expects ICD-10 compliance, however there are no regulations.	West Virginia	Pending confirmation
Missouri	Does not plan on adopting ICD coding in future rule making process. However, recommends aligning with CMS ICD-10 mandate.	Wisconsin	No regulation, but suggest that health care providers and payers adopt ICD-10 for purposes of continuity
Montana	Determined by payer	Wyoming	Starting October 1, 2015 the Division will allow either code set for a one year period to accommodate the transition to ICD-10.

*As of 9-3-2015

Workers' compensation programs are state run programs governed by the laws and regulations of each state. Workers' compensation commercial insurers are non-covered entities under HIPAA and therefore exempt from the mandate to convert their billing practices to ICD-10.